Call for Papers

Theme and Topics:
The conference welcomes theoretical and empirical papers on markets with search frictions. Papers on different markets and areas of application are encouraged, including labor, money, finance, real estate, trade, industrial organization, public economics, marriage markets, etc. Also welcome are papers on the use of register data, on labor and macro more generally, and on the associated econometric methods.

Organizer:
Bent Jesper Christensen, Aarhus BSS at Aarhus University

Confirmed speakers include:
Jesper Bagger, Royal Holloway, University of London
Kenneth Burdett, University of Pennsylvania
John Kennan, University of Wisconsin-Madison
Nicholas Kiefer, Cornell University, New York
Philipp Kircher, University of Edinburgh
Rasmus Lentz, University of Wisconsin-Madison
Guido Menzio, University of Pennsylvania
Espen Moen, BI Norwegian Business School, Oslo
Lasse Heje Pedersen, Copenhagen Business School
Christopher Pissarides, London School of Economics
Fabien Postel-Vinay, University College London
Robert Shimer, University of Chicago
Christopher Taber, University of Wisconsin-Madison
Coen Teulings, University of Cambridge
Randall Wright, University of Wisconsin-Madison
Eran Yashiv, Tel Aviv University

Submissions to be sent to: Bent Jesper Christensen bjchristensen@econ.au.dk. Full papers. Please mention whether willing to present poster + flash presentation (5 min) if a full presentation cannot be accommodated on the program.
Deadline for submission: August 31, 2017
Notification of acceptance: September 15, 2017
Deadline for conference registration and hotel booking: September 30, 2017
The conference starts on Thursday, October 26 at 9 am, and ends Saturday, October 28, at 4 pm

Venue: Aarhus Institute of Advanced Studies aias.au.dk, Aarhus University

Conference registration and hotel booking: https://kongres.eventsair.com/markets-with-search-frictions/registration/Site/Register

PhD course: Directed Search, lectured by Randall Wright, University of Wisconsin-Madison, October 23-25
See more about the PhD course.