

The 2nd Dale T. Mortensen Center Conference:
Labor Markets and Search Frictions
October 31-November 3rd, 2018, Sandbjerg Manor

Call for Papers

Theme and Topics:

The conference welcomes structural and empirical papers with a focus on search frictions or frictions more generally. The focus will be on the labor markets but other areas within public economics, marriage markets etc. are also welcome.

We plan to have both regular sessions and poster sessions. In your submission please note, which type you are submitting to or if you are submitting to both.

The conference starts Wednesday, October 31st at noon, and ends after lunch on Saturday, November 3rd. The conference dinner will be Friday evening. The conference will be located at Sandbjerg Manor (<https://www.sandbjerg.dk/da/>).

The Dale T. Mortensen Lecture will be given by Rasmus Lentz (University of Wisconsin-Madison).

Confirmed speakers include:

Rasmus Lentz (University of Wisconsin-Madison)
Espen Moen (BI Norwegian Business School)
Fabian Postel-Vinay (University College London)
Jeremy Lise (University of Minnesota)
Carlos Carrillo-Tudela (University of Essex)

Organizers:

Rune Vejlin (rvejlin@econ.au.dk) and Jonas Maibom (maibom@econ.au.dk)
Practical information: Kirsten Stentoft: kstentoft@econ.au.dk

Papers submitted to the conference should be sent to Kirsten Stentoft: kstentoft@econ.au.dk.

Deadline for submission: September 15th, 2018
Notification of acceptance: September 25th, 2018
Deadline for registration: October 1st, 2018

Registration and Expenses:

The conference fee is 2000 DKK and covers room and all meals during the entire conference.

Registration:

https://auws.au.dk/DTMConference_2018_Sandbjerg