

Some practical house rules for Sandbjerg Estate, Denmark

Sandbjerg Estate is a conference centre owned by the University of Aarhus but widely used by many other conference organisers. Its goal is to keep expenditures low, and to do that there is a certain kind of self-service and therefore you are kindly asked to observe the following few rules:

- After each meal you are kindly asked to clear the table. This does not count for the special conference dinner November 2
- There is one free wine/beer/soft drink for each meal. This does not count for the special conference dinner. Further beverages should be paid for. Beers and soft drinks are placed in a refrigerator to keep cool. Prices will appear at the desk
- During coffee breaks you are welcome to take soft drinks from the refrigerator
- Bed linen and towels will not be changed during the stay
- Internet access is available
- From October 30 you can reach Kirsten Stentoft on +45 2865 0397 or on email kstentoft@econ.au.dk

- Keys must be handed in at the reception at 9:00 a.m. on the day of departure
