

DISTINGUISHED SPEAKERS LECTURE

The School of Economics and Management, Aarhus University, and
The Danish National Research Foundation's Center for Research in Econometric Analysis of Time Series (CREATES)

are pleased to announce

Professor Joel Horowitz
Northwestern University

“Variable Selection in High-Dimensional Regression Models”

Thursday 14 May 2009 at 14.15

Auditorium 011, building 1324

The lecture, followed by a reception, is open to everybody

The reception takes places in “Riddersalen”, building 1323, 3rd floor

Professor Joel Horowitz is Charles E. and Emma H. Morrison Professor of Economics at Northwestern University. Professor Horowitz is a world leading econometrician with numerous contributions to the profession. The past 15 years his research has primarily focused on the econometrics of semi- and nonparametric models and bootstrap methods in econometrics. His research counts more 125 publications in leading journals. Joel Horowitz is a fellow of several learned societies including the Econometric Society and the American Statistical Association. He has been editor or co-editor of journals including Econometric Theory, Review of Economics and Statistics, and Econometrica.

For further information, please contact Professor Niels Haldrup
8942 1613 nhaldrup@creates.au.dk www.creates.au.dk