Information about Nordic Econometric Network is on the web. Members are welcome to send news to the web page and major events can be announced through the mailing list.

Time table

1. In June before the next meeting the mailing lists are updated.
2. In September-October before the next meeting potential invited speakers are contacted. If possible, a PhD course is arranged in connection with the meeting.
3. In mid-December a call for papers is emailed. Deadline for submission early March.
Decision on papers late March.

There were some proposals for organizing the next meeting:

- Submitted papers must be at least semi-finished and include a list of fields of interest, JEL numbers.
- Develop procedure for reviewing the papers
- To organize no more than 2-3 parallel session
- Have senior people organize some sessions including practitioners from Central Bank, Statistical Office, etc.
- A small, refundable conference fee to encourage people to cancel participation in dinner and lunch instead of a no-show
